

cosmic call

catch me up
take me with you
a hiking stop
rockets drifting

what a ride
stars are flipping
suns pass by
like small wishes

i'm gonna kiss the planet mars beware i'll be dancing in the far

sweet or lost
there is no limit
i cannot drop
cause
i am lifting

ref.: i am leaving
    into cosmic space
    and believing
    love brings me back

    i am leaving
    close the rocket doors
    what a feeling
    ready to take of

what a ride
through endless spaces
atomic lights
feed magic traces

i'll meet the moon
cause he's my favorite
his lovely view
i have to taste it

i write a postcard from above a smile brings it right to where you are a lucky star

ref.:

endlessness calls out for me
is attracting me
by showing me
sweet dreams and lovely hipes fear is a lonely sigh

in this cosmic
